Words of Praise

For the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the honor of being on every bottle wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English. If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obnoxious examination and the excruciating pain of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of medicine can be carried out in the privacy of the home without the aid of a doctor. Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weak and ailing women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance by perseverance in its use for a reasonable length of time. You can afford to give it a fair trial. It is a safe medicine for the family. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guaranteed to be kept secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic. Easy to take as candy.

MAN LYNCHED.

A telephone message received in Bristol, Va., from Russell county, last night, states that Jackson Presler, a young married man, was taken from his home by a mob of 300 men, early yesterday morning, hurried into the woods a short distance from his house, and there lynched. The fury of the mob was due to alleged connection of Presler with the double killing of George Call and John Mutter, two young men residing in the Swords Creek neighborhood of Russell county, who were shot to death in a brawl at a country dance Sunday night. The tragedy and the subsequent lynching took place in a remote section of the Russell county mountains, and there is no direct communication with Swords Creek.

Thomas Gross and Fred Dye also are charged with participating in the murder. The dance is said to have ended in a drunken fight, in which practically all the men participated. Presler retired to his home, whence he was taken and lynched by the mob, who afterward continued its search for the other alleged guilty men.

Dye and Gross attempted to escape, but were captured by officers. It soon became evident, however, that another lynching was being planned by the friends of the dead men. An engine was, therefore, requisitioned from Richlands, and the prisoners, with a posse of officers in charge, were rushed to Cleveland, a distance of sixteen miles, from which place they were hurried through the country to the county jail.

A message from Lebanon last night states that a large mob is supposed to be on its way to the Russell county jail for the purpose of lynching Dye and Gross. The safety of the two men is believed to be absolutely dependent on the forces of the county sheriff, which force was, late yesterday afternoon, augmented in anticipation of the battle which is believed to be impending.

Both of the men killed were unmarried. Presler, who was lynched, was the only married man connected with the tragedy. He was lynched without being given a chance to say a word in his own behalf. His wife attempted to follow him as he was led from the house, but the woman was restrained by members of the mob, and was not allowed to witness the harrowing scene that followed in the near-by woods.

Cause of stomach troubles.
When a man has trouble with his stomach you may know that he is eating more than he should or of some article of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and use of the trouble does not disappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

"RAISED THE DEAD."
Comte Leonore de Larmanou, director of the important Societe des Gens des Lettres in Paris, told a correspondent last night about an effort made recently by three French savants to "raise the dead."

"It was out at Versailles," said the Comte. "A young girl apparently died from natural causes, and the physicians, with the consent of the family, secured the body a few hours after death."

"The body was immersed in warm water, and subjected to rhythmic electrification. From time to time one of the physicians made hypnotic passes."

"After three hours' treatment the girl opened her eyes. Further stimulated, she was able to speak."

"When I fell asleep at the hospital," said she, "there was an indefinite period of complete prostration and then I became conscious of a growing sensation of cold. All my life seemed slowly to concentrate about my heart, and all my thoughts seemed to retire to a distant corner of my brain."

"Then my thought left my body altogether. I could see myself lying there, while I still heard the sound of distant music. But through it all I had a bodily sensation of bitter cold."

"Suddenly there was a delicate shock. The last tie uniting me and my body was broken. At the same instant, as though gifted with new sight, I witnessed a terrible spectacle. My body was the theater of a terrific struggle, nameless monsters fighting for its possession."

"At this juncture the girl became hysterical and savagely attacked the physician. To quiet her one of them gave her an injection of morphine. The dose was overstrong, and her heart action ceased. Efforts were continued throughout the night and most of the next day to recall her again to life, but they were unavailing."

"The only rational explanation is that the girl was not dead, but in a trance. The facts are as related."
